L&T IDPL's road project awarded at D&B Infra Awards

L&T IDPL has been awarded the Best Project Award at the D&B Infra awards 2014, for the fourth year in a row.

The award was received in recognition of overall exemplary performance in the road project - L&T Halol Shamlaji Tollway Limited in the Roads and Highways sector.

The award was presented by Mr. Shankar Aggarwal, Secretary - Ministry of Urban Development in an event organized at Hotel ITC Maratha, Mumbai on October 30th, 2014.

Dun & Bradstreet (D&B) is the world's leading provider of business information, knowledge and insight. The Dun & Bradstreet Infra Awards felicitates leading infrastructure companies that have delivered exemplary performance.

The 'D&B Infra Awards 2014' honored leading companies in infrastructure sectors like construction, ports, power, oil & gas, telecom and others for their performance on various financial and non - financial parameters.

D&B used a proprietary model to choose the award winners based on various qualitative and quantitative factors. Projects were evaluated based on nominations received from companies. Industry experts and eminent professionals from infrastructure and allied sectors were a part of the independent jury.
